

MEMBERSHIP

Regular & Certified Member $100.00

Associate Member $15.00

Life & Honorary Member $0.00

Regular Member: Over 18 years of age, employed in municipal enforcement or provincial statute.

Associate Member: Person working part-time in municipal enforcement.

Life Member: Person in good standing who has retired.

MEMBERSHIP INCLUDES:

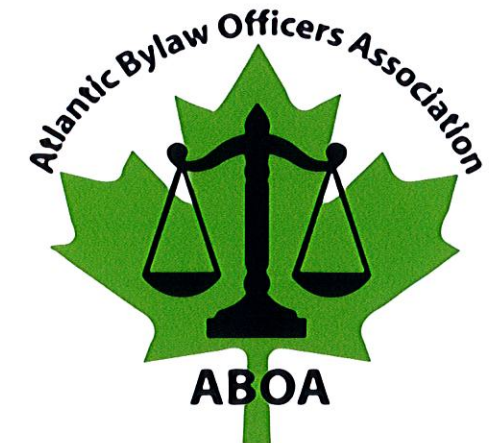

- Membership Certificate
- Membership ID Card
- 10% off Fundy Tactical Supplies
- 15% off Fundy Tactical Boots
- Free Training through Canadian Police Knowledge Network
- Private Access to 'Membership Only' section of the website
- Reduced Fee for Conference & Training
- Newsletter
- Voting Privileges

MEMBERSHIPS EXPIRE ANNUALLY ON MARCH 31ST

CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

The Certification Program is designed to recognize the unique and diverse role Bylaw Officers across Atlantic Canada carry out. The program awards points for core skills, advanced and specialized training and provides a stamp of quality to attest that an officer has completed a standardized training curriculum to effectively carry out their role. Some of the topics for certification specific training include:

- Dangerous and Unsightly Regulations
- Minimum Standards Bylaw
- Animal Control Bylaw
- Solid Waste Resource Management
- Land Use Bylaw
- Building Regulations
- Parking Bylaw
- Diversity
- Self Defense

ATLANTIC BYLAW OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

ABOA

www.ataboa.com
ataboa@outlook.com

WHAT IS ABOA?

The Atlantic Bylaw Officers Association (ABOA) is a professional association that allows contact between municipal enforcement officers across Atlantic Canada to seek experience, knowledge and skills. ABOA provides annual training with the help of various levels of government, police agencies, lawyers, animal control experts and consultants who have the necessary skills.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

ABOA's 2-3 day annual training seminars are specifically designed to assist members in improving their job and to reflect the latest issues, including legislative developments.

SOME TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Investigation Techniques;
- Dangerous and Unsanitary Premises;
- Officer Safety;
- Animal Control;
- Note taking & Report writing;
- Mental Health;
- Court Preparation;
- Communications Techniques.

ATLANTIC BYLAW OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

655 Main Street
Moncton NB

OBJECTIVES & GOALS

- Bring members into helpful association with each other;
- Promote acceptable standards of practice and procedures;
- To facilitate the exchange and distribution of knowledge, information and best practices between members;
- Promote education and training;
- Cooperate with other municipal associations and all levels of government;
- Foster good public relations

THE DON SHEA AWARD

In memory of Don, who regrettably passed away in 2005, ABOA presents an award annually to an association member for outstanding contribution to ABOA.

ELSIE ROBINSON-DEBAY AWARD

This award in Elsie's name, is given out each year to a member who demonstrates exceptional betterment of their community either through an exceptional act of kindness, involvement in their home community or through volunteer work.

